

Name: Bharti Shewale

Role: Executive Committee Member – Dnyandeep Sanstha

Profile Summary

Bharti Shewale is a Research Assistant at the Victor Chang Cardiac Research Institute, Sydney, Australia, contributing to advanced cardiovascular research aimed at improving understanding of heart diseases and regenerative medicine. With a strong academic background in pharmacy, she brings scientific rigor, analytical thinking, and a research-driven approach to community health and education initiatives.

Education

- Bachelor of Pharmacy (B.Pharm) – Nagpur University
- Master of Pharmacy (M.Pharm) – Nagpur University

Professional Experience

- Research Assistant – Victor Chang Cardiac Research Institute, Sydney (Australia)
Involved in laboratory research, data analysis, and experimental support within cardiac research programs, contributing to evidence-based scientific outcomes.

Contribution to Dnyandeep Sanstha

As a member associated with Dnyandeep Sanstha, Bharti Shewale supports the organization through:

- Providing scientific perspective for health awareness and preventive care initiatives
- Supporting health education and community outreach programs
- Encouraging students and youth towards science, pharmacy, and research careers
- Contributing to knowledge-sharing and evidence-based program design

Areas of Focus

- Cardiovascular research & biomedical sciences
- Community health awareness
- Health education & youth mentorship
- Research-based program support

Values & Vision

Bharti Shewale believes in using scientific knowledge for social good, bridging laboratory research with community-level awareness. Her association with Dnyandeep Sanstha reflects a commitment to contribute her skills and global exposure to grassroots social impact.

