

Name: Late Dr. Chandrabhan G. Janbandhu

Founder – Dnyandeep Sanstha (Established in 1991)

Hometown: Bhiwapur Village, Maharashtra

Profile Summary

Late Dr. Chandrabhan G. Janbandhu was a visionary educationist, economist, social reformer, and compassionate human being who dedicated his life to the upliftment of rural and underserved communities. Born in Bhiwapur village, his academic excellence and deep-rooted values of humanity shaped a life of service. In 1991, guided by his belief that true education must serve society, he founded Dnyandeep Sanstha to create opportunities in education, health, skills, and social welfare for people at the grassroots.

Education

- B.Sc. (Agriculture)
- M.Sc. (Economics)
- Ph.D.

His multidisciplinary education enabled him to work at the intersection of agriculture, rural economy, and social development.

Academic & Professional Journey

Dr. Janbandhu served in multiple esteemed institutions across Maharashtra, contributing to agricultural education and rural economic development:

- Rice Research Centre, Sindewahi – Economist & Assistant Professor
- Maharajbagh Agriculture College, Nagpur – Assistant Professor (Economics)
- Academic engagements in Akola and Yavatmal Agriculture Colleges

He was known as a dynamic teacher, thoughtful economist, and inspiring mentor, respected by students, farmers, and colleagues alike.

Social Initiatives & Community Work

Driven by compassion and a strong sense of social responsibility, Dr. Janbandhu initiated and led several impactful programs:

- Founder of Dnyandeep Sanstha (1991) – rural development, education & welfare
- Organized health camps and village cleanliness drives
- Started paramedical courses to create employment opportunities for youth
- Established a free girls' hostel at Gadmoshi, Sindewahi to support rural girls' education

- Promoted community awareness programs for farmers and villagers

After retirement, he continued his entrepreneurial and social journey by establishing Janbandhu Gift Centre in Sindewahi, creating local employment and encouraging small entrepreneurship.

Voice for Farmers & Rural Economy

Dr. Janbandhu was a well-known voice in the community:

- Delivered radio talks and public lectures on agriculture, farmers' welfare, and rural economy
- Actively engaged in spreading awareness on economic literacy for farmers
- Recognized and honored by various institutions for his service to society and education

Values, Personality & Legacy

Dr. Janbandhu was full of life, a gifted speaker, a thoughtful entrepreneur, and above all, a man of deep humanity. He instilled in his family and students the values of integrity, compassion, service, and dignity of labor. His life remains a living example of leadership with kindness.

Founder's Legacy at Dnyandeep Sanstha

The foundation he laid continues to guide Dnyandeep Sanstha's mission today—to work at the grassroots, empower communities through education and skills, and uphold the values of humanity, service, and social responsibility.

"A true leader is one who lights many lamps and asks for no spotlight."

The spirit of Late Dr. Chandrabhan G. Janbandhu lives on in every initiative of Dnyandeep Sanstha.