

Name: Suman Badole

Role: President – Dnyandeep Sanstha

Profile Summary

Suman Badole is the President of Dnyandeep Sanstha and a dedicated social worker with decades of experience in community welfare and grassroots development. She has been instrumental in nurturing the Sanstha since its early years, working closely with her late husband, Dr. Chandrabhan G. Janbandhu, to create sustainable initiatives for education, health, and social upliftment in rural and underserved communities.

Her leadership reflects compassion, resilience, and a deep commitment to empowering women and improving quality of life at the ground level.

Education & Professional Background

- Qualified Nurse (Nursing Course)
- Former Staff Nurse at Daga Memorial Hospital, Nagpur

Grassroots Social Work & Community Engagement

- Conducted Saksharta Abhiyan (Adult Literacy / Prudh Shikshan) classes for village women in Sindewahi Taluka
- Led Self-Hygiene & Health Awareness sessions for agriculture officers and daily-wage labourers, promoting preventive health and dignity
- Served as a Member of the “Sallahgar Samiti” (Advisory Committee) of an agriculture-based organization in Sindewahi, contributing to community-oriented decision-making

Key Contributions to Dnyandeep Sanstha

- Long-term leadership and strategic guidance as President
- Co-initiator of free hostel facilities for rural school girls
- Active role in supporting free food, education, and care programs
- Leadership in women empowerment, health awareness, and community welfare initiatives
- Mentorship and moral leadership to volunteers and managing committee members

Areas of Focus

- Women empowerment & adult literacy
- Health awareness & hygiene education

- Girls' education and welfare
- Community welfare & humanitarian support

Values & Philosophy

Suman Badole believes in service with empathy, dignity, and perseverance. Her life's work reflects quiet leadership, consistency, and a lifelong dedication to uplifting communities through care, awareness, and inclusive growth.